WE NOMINATE

H. Alexander Smith, the Princeton Community's senior statesman and one of this nation's most influential senators during the first six years of the Eisenhower Administration, whose gift this week to the Princeton University Library of his personal papers was applauded by historians, political scientists and other analysts of American foreign policy. At the time he is looking forward to his 81st birthday (January 30th), and to his 60th wedding anniversary in 1962, the long-time Princetonian is making his voluminous and unedited papers available to qualified scholars "at the discretion of the University Librarian or his alternates."

One observer has noted that this generous and thoughtful action on the part of the Senator, supported by his substantial gift for the "appropriate care" of the papers and "for other library purposes in the area of public and international affairs," could help shape new interpretations of one of the most hectic decades in United States history. Smith's 12 years on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, bracketing the careers of five Secretaries of State, included such crucial events as the Yalta Conference, the Baghdad Pact, the Truman-MacArthur controversy and recurring United Nations and NATO crises.

Of comparable significance to Princetonians with more limited horizons are the sections of the Smith Papers bearing upon Princeton at the turn of the 20th century and the development of the University during the administration of John Grier Hibben (1912-1932). A member of the Princeton Class of 1901, who had been persuaded by Woodrow Wilson to study law, Smith chaired the committee which studied the reorganization of the University in 1919-20 and, from 1920 until 1930, held forth as the University's Executive Secretary as well as lecturer in politics and international relations.

During the 1920's, while practicing law in New York, Smith became increasingly interested and active in New Jersey Republican affairs. A hard-working member of the State Republican Committee (of which he subsequently became chairman), and also a member of the National Republican Committee, Smith was first elevated to the U.S. Senate in 1944, filling the vacancy created by the death of Warren Barbour. Re-elected to the Senate by convincing margins in both 1946 and 1952, he was appointed in 1958 a Special Consultant to the Department of State and handled a series of overseas assignments with distinction.

After 15 years of residence and practice in Colorado, a move dictated by ill health, Smith was called to prominence by Herbert Hoover when the latter assembled his staff for the U.S. Food Administration of World War I renown. Smith's reminiscences consequently span some 40 years of American public life, starting with the "Golden 1920's" and ranging up through his years of close association with such divergent and striking personalities as George Marshall, Dean Acheson and John Foster Dulles; Senators Arthur Vandenberg, Robert Taft, Walter George and Theodore Green; and Vice-Presidents Barkley, Wallace and Nixon.

For sensing all Woodrow Wilson meant to convey in coining the slogan, "Princeton in the Nation's Service", for his unflagging and highly intelligent advocacy of this nation's two-party system; for preserving primary source materials of unquestioned value to oncoming generations of citizens and scholars; he is Town Topics' nominee for

TRUE CHRISTMAS GIVING

To Help Needy Children. "I don't think I could have a very merry Christmas, if I knew the cases of which you wrote weren't having a happier one this year." The note from a donor to the TOWN TOPICS Christmas Fund is typical of many sent during the past week with gifts which raised the total to $2,835.50.

A Kingston resident expressed appreciation for "the splendid work you are doing for the less fortunate people of Princeton," while a Princeton woman sent "best wishes for a generous response to a very moving appeal." A former Princeton High School student, making a contribution in the name of one of her teachers, commented,

"Congratulations on the object of your Fund: guidance

LIVING NATIVITY: Spirit of Christmas is exemplified by members of Calvary Baptist Church, Hopewell, who pose each year in outdoor nativity scene on church lawn at Broad Street near Greenwood Avenue. This is the fourth year scene has been staged. First 1960 presentation was last Sunday. Others will be this Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

is far more important to these children than toys for the Christmas stocking."

A West Windsor Township resident asked that her gift be marked for assistance to "the young mother with two toddlers" who were among the "forgotten few" of which TOWN TOPICS wrote in its 1960 appeal. She added:

"I am young and have two small children. Sometimes being a friend can mean more than money. I would like to know her."

Contributions came from all parts of Princeton, from many nearby communities, and from readers in New York, Pittsburgh, Trenton, Maryland and Florida. Among the contributions was one sum raised by several friends who agreed to give money they would otherwise have spent in sending Christmas cards.

The need this year is greater than ever, and the Fund is put to the best possible use this year "round. There is still time to give.

MALE FOR GOVERNOR? "I am humored," "I'm not doing anything active to seek the gubernatorial nomination, but I'm honored and flattered that my name has been considered," said Borough Mayor Raymond F. Male, in response to the appearance of his name on a list of 26 prospective candidates for the 1961 Democratic nomination. Governor Robert Meyner and Democratic county leaders met at "Morven" Saturday to discuss the list, but made no immediate decision. The county chairmen did agree, however, that it would be better to unite behind a single candidate than to go through a costly primary fight.

Fourteen of New Jersey's 21 counties were present at "Morven" for the meeting. The Democratic strong-hold of Hudson County was missing, and so were Atlantic, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Essex and Ocean.

"When I started out in government work I certainly never expected to be considered as governor, or even as mayor of Princeton," said Mayor Male, "but I've been keenly interested in state and local government all my life. Let me put it this way: if the party wants me, they know where to find me. Nobody will have to twist my arm to get me to run. I would consider it a great honor."

Mayor Male said that he had not given much thought to the possibility of running in 1961 for a third term as mayor of the Borough.

"I believe that public jobs should be passed around," he said, "and there are a lot of highly competent men here in Princeton who could do the job at Borough Hall. As for me, of course, I guess everybody knows that I've never done anything I've enjoyed more in my life than serving as Mayor of Princeton."

Among other possible candidates on the list of 26 are United States Senator Harrison A. Williams, who is said to have considerable support within the Democratic party; Congressman Frank Thompson, Jr. of the Fourth District; State Highway Commissioner Dwight R. C. Palmer, and former Attorney General David T. Wilentz. Mr. Wilentz is also said to have many supporters.

HEAT WAVE HITS

Aud Rain Replaces Snow. Tuesday's day-long predictions of up to ten inches of new snow went down the drain as the fall season's last fling at the snow was had with a predicted effect on the weather.

Temperatures moving well up into the thirties on the wings of a wind that stayed in the southwest changed a predicted snowstorm to a relatively warm rain. The footing and the traffic conditions were hardly enjoyable, but were considered slightly preferable to ten more inches of snow.

Princeton, just emerging from last week's record storm, is prepared to meet new snow with some of its equipment still in repair shops from the previous onslaught. In the Borough, a new system of snow clearing has been inaugurated in order to spare crewmen. There will be 20 regular men operating in two squads of 10 men each who will work 12 hours on, 12 hours off during a storm and the removal operations that follow.

Major snow-removal was completed in the Borough by Friday night, although work continued through Tuesday on danger spots like intersections, exceptionally narrow roadways, entrances to firehouses and so on.

Arthur Brokaw, Borough engineer, estimated that the Borough spent $1,000 renting extra trucks and bulldozers. With overtime pay for crewmen and materials, new engines and repairs the cost will come to about $6,000 or $7,000 Mr. Brokaw said.

In the Township, "93 percent" of the roads were plowed by Tuesday evening and the intersections were done by Wednesday, according to Mr. Breth.

Both Mr. Brokaw and Mr. Breth found that the heavier the equipment, the more useful it was. Mr. Breth said that the snowplows were inadequate for drifts, and that commercial contractors' heavy equipment was what dug out the Township.

Equipment Problems Studied. The Borough had more offers of commercial equipment than it could use. Mr. Brokaw said, Mr. Breth said that the Township had some difficulty rounding up contractors' trucks and "dozers" because the equipment was scattered over the area on various jobs. Mr. Breth suggested that the Township begin to buy, once a year, a fleet of six-by-six trucks with three driving axles to sustain the burden of heavy, packed snow. He said these would cost about $7,500 each.

Mr. Brokaw said he hopes to work out an agreement with Castoro Brothers, Howellville, and which the Borough would buy A-frames and underframes for heavy trucks. These would be mounted on Castoro's 14-wheel trucks, and when in a heavy snowfall, the trucks would report to the Borough garage, attach plows to the frames and start out on the job.

THE SEASON OF LIGHT: Palmer Square's traditional Christmas tree glows with the joy of the season. Princeton residents will gather at the scene on Christmas Eve for an annual caroling that has long been part of the Christmas scene in Princeton. (Staff Photo)

"All our own trucks should be a notch or two higher in strength and ruggedness," said Mr. Brokaw. "Small ones just fall down completely."

Both engineers suggest the purchase of double-duty equipment that could serve other purposes than snow-removal, but Mr. Brokaw would like very much to have a snow-lower.

There was very little competition between Borough and Township during snow-removal operations, and no competitive bidding for the same commercial trucks. Contractors' men, working for the Borough, did dump snow on Prospect Avenue where it slid over into Township territory and caused a problem for Riverside School officials and a delightful playground for Riverside children, but after the school protested, the Borough dumped elsewhere. Township dumped elsewhere, dumped on Community Gardens.

Friday's scare snow, which many people thought was the beginning of a new blizzard, brought skid marks to Princeton streets. Mrs. Muriel Koch, R.D. 1, slid into a Township grader which had limped to the side of Harrison Street with a flat tire. Two cars skidded into each other on Quaker Road at Squatter's Grove where the road had been plowed into a narrow lane.

THREE DAYS LEFT To Talk to Santa. "Santa Claus" Schultz is nearing the end of another fortnight of keeping his young and ever-aching public happy. For the past ten days, he has been talking to Princeton area children from his workshop at the North Pole, answering endless inquiries, listening to hundreds of requests. (For a report on what first-graders at Valley Road of School hope Santa will bring them, see "Question of the Week," page 13.)

Three days are left for the calls to Santa, whose energy is as boundless as the legendary soul he impersonates. The number is Walnut 4-3375.

As they have in other years, Princeton area merchants have contributed to a fund that will help blind Henry Schultz balance his budget for the months ahead. The donors include:

The Town Saw Shop, Allen's Children's Shop, O.H. Hubbard Agency, Ulli Sletizer, The Wright Shop, The Flower Basket, Princeton Recreation Center, Farr Hardware, Hollis Shoes, Betty Wright Shop.

Also, Town Topics, Clearse Studio, Lehey's, Orren Jack Turner, Nassau Coffee Shop, The Annex, The Lundrymat, Nassau Pharmacy, Lettman's Luggage, Dr. Nathan Kasriel, Princeton Stations.

ZONING SAYS "NO"

To Office Building. A one-story office building, designed for the New Jersey Bankers Association, was denied a place in Princeton Township when the Zoning Board Thursday night turned down a request for a property line variance.

The request was made by the Rocky Hill Realty Company which owns a one-acre parcel of land adjoining Research Park on Harrison near Ewing. The variance would be necessary because the minimum lot size in the engineering research zone is five acres and the Rocky Hill plot is only one acre. Furthermore, streets in the research zone must be 150 feet from the lot line and the proposed office building would be only 17 feet away from lot lines.

The building, designed in the Colonial style, would house only the banking association of offices, which are now located on Hulfish Street next to the Princeton Playhouse.

Several neighbors of the proposed building appeared at the hearing and indicated that they had no objections to the new structure. Kenneth Watfield, 516 Ewing, stated that he was in favor of the building and B. Middlebrook, 552 Ewing, said that he approved, also, but thought the building should be in the middle of the one-acre plot.

Most of the complaints of "too much" rain (which by Wednesday's rain ended by Wednesday's rain) would have been about ten inches of snow had it been ten degrees colder.

A return to lower temperatures is on the schedule for the next few days, and with them the possibility of skating. What's more, there's no new precipitation in sight through Christmas.

of George Sands and Carl Geiger, will probably appear before the Board again in January with revised plans. It is possible that they will seek to buy additional land from Optimus Research Corporation. ORC did not send representatives to Thursday's zoning meeting.

In other business Thursday night, the Zoning Board denied in the Princeton Shopping Center permission to build a covered swimming pool and a frame cottage for Sylvan Pools in the open space between Dairy Queen and the Princeton Garden Market. The proportion of selling area to land area in the Shopping Center is fixed, and the addition of the Sylvan Pools shelter and display pool would increase the selling space beyond what is presently allowed. In addition, the Zoning Board felt that the new installation would block the driveway planned open design of the Center.

THANKS FROM THE CHIEF. Police Capt. James P. Pace, 1600 Chief of the Princeton Fire Department, expressed his thanks to the engineers, police and firemen who have assisted him during the past year in a letter of thanks. "To my fellow firemen and friends," Chief Pace leaves office on December 31. "My sincere appreciation for the excellent support and cooperation I have received this past year," the letter begins. "To the Board of Engineers, who have been most helpful and responsive when called upon."

"To the firemen who give much of their efforts regardless of risk of their own safety to help their neighbors in time of need, this is what constitutes the Princeton Fire Department of today. To the Board and Township Police, who have been a great help and very co-operative in all emergencies."

"I wish for my successors, much happiness, interest and joy. You like town topics, the town is yours, your appreciation is to mention it to our advertisers."

the same fellowship that has prevailed in the past, the true spirit of a Volunteer Fire Department whose personnel reward comes from helping others whenever called upon.

"To each and every member and friends of the Fire Department my humble thanks for giving me the privilege and honor to serve as your Chief this past year. Last and not least to the local Press, you have done a fine job. Thank you all and I wish the very best for the future to all my friends and for a Princeton we all love."

THIEVES CAPTURED

After Fast Chase. Three men riding in a car stolen from Prof. Everett S. Wallis, of the Princeton chemistry department, were apprehended by State Police after a 90-mile-an-hour chase down the Brunswick Pike. A fourth man made a getaway when the car was halted by troops.

Arrested were George W. Edwards, 25, of Trenton, the driver; Alfred J. Carter, 20, also of Trenton; and William J. Powell, 18, White Horse. Troopers Charles Larsson and Robert Gaydos made the pursuit from Alexander Road south for four miles.

Edwards was charged with possession of a stolen car and driving without a license. The car was stolen early Saturday morning, according to police. In Borough Court Monday night, Magistrate Theodore T. Tams found all three men guilty of possession of a stolen car and fined them each $25.

News Of The THEATRES

GILGOLD EXCELLENT

But Material Disappointing.
Watching a performance by such a magnificent actor as Sir John Gielgud is always a pleasure, but the extent of the pleasure depends on the quality of the material. "Love and Death," the program he presented last Friday at Mc-Carter, simply does not have the appeal of its predecessor,
"Shakespeare's Ages of Man."

The show, presented here under the sponsorship of C&C Productions, consists of Sir John reading a collection of writings on various aspects of love and death. Authors represented range from John Donne and Robert Browning to John Bunyan and Matthew Arnold.

A man standing on a stage reciting poetry, even if he recites it beautifully, is not necessarily entertaining to hold an audience for two hours.
Sir John's readings included a few sparkling moments which evoked a warm response, but generally the effect was tiring rather than stimulating.

At the conclusion of the readings Sir John gave two interpretations of Shakespeare, and the difference was overwhelming. Up to that point he had just been reading, but now he was acting, and the effect on the audience was electric.

The Shakespearean pieces were the final sequel to the young girl named Gretchen
who runs away from her grandfather to find adventure
as a dancing lady in the circus. The outcome of her escape is determined by a pair of magic red shoes given to her
by an old witch.

The part of Gretchen will be played by Lee Tim. Others in the cast are Richard Aaron,
Suzanne Friedly, Marilyn
Buckland, Ingrid Buck, Meta
Thompson, Duncan Hoxworth

I WARN YOU, TOTO: Sebastian, the Magician (Richard Aaron of Lincoln Highway) warns Toto the Clown (Mar-lynn Buckland of 35 Stanley Avenue) to behave in the Princeton Children's Theatre production of "The Magic Red Shoes." Adapted from the Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale, the fantasy for children will be given Tuesday at Murray Theatre.

CHILDREN INVITED

To See "Magic Red Shoes" A three-act musical play for children, "The Magic Red Shoes," will be presented next Tuesday, December 27, at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in Murray Theatre on the Princeton University campus. A production of the Princeton Children's Theatre, the show is being presented by Theatre Intime

The play was written and directed by Mrs. Constance Loux. It tells the story of a young girl named Gretchen
who runs away from her
grandfather to find adventure
as a dancing lady in the circus. The outcome of her escape is determined by a pair
of magic red shoes given to her
by an old witch.

The part of Gretchen will be played by Lee Tim. Others in the cast are Richard Aaron,
Suzanne Friedly, Marilyn
Buckland, Ingrid Buck, Meta
Thompson, Duncan Hoxworth

and Mrs. Loux. This will be the second Princeton Children's Theatre production staged by Mrs. Loux. Tickets may be bought at the Office Store or at the box office
the day of the show.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The 3 Worlds of Gulliver (December 21-27) are England, the land of Brobdingnag and Lilliput, as readers of Swift's classic will recall. In this color production, the sensational visual aspects of the three worlds are neatly explored through a widescreen process called "Superdynamation."

Swift's inclusive satire is noted but soft-pedaled, with the result that this is an entertaining lightweight item that will be particularly favored by youngsters.

Kerwin Mathews appears as Gulliver, and his co-stars are Jo Morrow and June Thorburn.
All act pleasantly, and the attractive young ladies contribute a little post-Swiftian love interest.

Butterfield 8 (December 26-January 3). In the interest of honesty, we feel it is only fair to preface this review with the following disclaimer: We like to look at Elizabeth Taylor, and we have never seen a movie of hers that we didn't enjoy to some degree.
"Butterfield 8" is not a good movie by a long shot, and students of the John O'Hara novel are likely to be disappointed. Despite her excellent performance in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," Miss Taylor is no Helen Hayes, and the story of fordoomed extramarital love sometimes borders on soap-opera. Laurence Harvey plays the married lover with his customary perception, but Eddie Fisher, as Miss Taylor's friend and confidant, is so innocuous that—even though it seems implausible—we suspect he is related to one of the lightweights at MGM.
The film is partially saved by the scriptwriters' careful handling of O'Hara dialogue, and by a competent supporting cast. It is in CinemaScope and color, the better to see Miss Taylor.

THE GARDEN
The Crowded Sky (December 20-24) is a propaganda film urging us to do something about the chaotic conditions in our military and commercial airplanes. This is a particularly timely subject in view of last week's frightening air disaster in New York City, but as drama, at least in this film, it is Grade Z.
Centering around a midair collision between a Navy jet and a commercial airliner, the picture is a rather dull affair. Boys were also born to Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Berthoff, 10 Bank Street, and Mr. and Mrs. John Donohue, 26 Forrestal Road, Franklin Park, both on December 13; and Mr. and Mrs. Serge Sobolevich, 54 Humbert Street, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Suber, 279 Western Way, Mr. and Mrs. Sabatino Rosser, 45 Woodside Lane; and Mr. and Mrs. James Rooney, 1 Berwick Road, Franklin Park, Franklin Park, all on December 15.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Arcaro, 449 Ewing Street, December 16; and Mr. and Mrs. William D. McNeasey, 21 Bank Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Dietz, 2 Ramsen Road, Franklin Park, both on December 17.
Parents of daughters included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Korman, Junction, December 14; and Mr. and Mrs. Lora Zissman, Acken Park, R.D. 1, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Korman, 21 Bank Street, both on December 15.

script brings before us a singularly uninteresting collection of type characters left over from "The High and the Mighty."
We have a flight captain whose sadism is understood, him, a stewardess tortured by her unrequited love for the captain, and a comic lady-theatrical agent. Their personal problems are brought out in a seemingly endless series of mawkish flashbacks. The stars are Dana Anderson, Rhonda Fleming, Eileen Zimbaist, John Kerr, Anne Francis, and Keenan Wynn, and the film is in Technicolor.

Hannibal (December 26-31) is a thorough stinker, one of the so-bad-it's-funny epics the Cardon presents every so often for our raucous amusement. Victor Mature leads the incompetent cast, which includes Rita Gam and Milly Vitale.
The script, all about Hannibal's active role in the capture Rome and the unmovable love and death of Miss Gam, is pitched at the same level as the performances. But both look good by comparison to the direction. In fairness, it should be pointed out that director Edgar G. Ulmer must have been hampered by his budget, which apparently was somewhere between thirty and forty dollars.

Although the historical Hannibal is a rather dubious figure, Mr. Mature never appears with more than four, and these four keep appearing in the same shot after the other in a sequence of stumbling elephants and a man falling off a ledge at least a dozen times. If you're afraid Hollywood has become too stilly professional, pull it out a little. It should be in Italy, should assure you that amateurism is not dead.

IT'S NEW

To Us

SOME LIKE THEM SWEET
Cuddled Christmas. For people who are trying to put on weight, Christmas is a prime time, and we offer as a public service a catalogue of places where you can buy the biggest calories in town.

Thorne's for example, has Stover candies, those stand-by holiday chocolate assortments that always strike the sweet tooth just right. The new package this year is a fluffy-headed Santa on a red box. Prices for Stovers are $1.40 for a pound, $2.75 for two pounds in the assorted category. The Santa box is $3.75 for one pound, 12 ounces.

Mrs. Martin, a next-door neighbor of the Stover family puts out sour balls and those pleasant fruit sippers. Tobler, who lives over in Switzerland, has a tremendous Christmas assortment, ranging from $3.38 a-pound boxes of milk chocolate, to little wrapped miniature bars at eight for 75 cents.

Thorne's has candy canes in all-sizes, from 25 cents each to a regular crutch of a candy down to a nicker for the baby ones. You might put into someone's stocking a "bobb" of 12 lifesaver rolls (39 cents), or the chimney package which shows a candy jar of English caramels through a picture window.

Louise Maas and the Nassau Del show off Sherry's red and gold paper fifth of rum cordial cherries — a pound for $3.50. Miss Maas has gathered those crystallized violets, mint leaves, and a potpourri of lilacs, rose, mintosa and mint in fetching little boxes.

Rosemarie, at Louise Maas, is $5 a pound. Coborette's Belgian chocolates, dark and light, are a bit over three pounds for $3. The wrapping looks like binding, and you may file the chocolates in your library if you want to hide them.

Matta of Italy offers a painted Italian cart with plumed horse, plumed rider and a cart full of candy, as you might have guessed. For any occasion, Thorne's has suggested Petits Fours Parisiennes, in chocolate or pastel assortments.

Like old-fashioned Christmas candies? Louise Maas has a green or natural reindeer in her candy. Thorne's has barley sugar and so do Viedt's and the Del. It used to be so hard to find! Country Mouse has Sea Chest's Honey Horehound.

Thin ribbon candy, brittle as ice, is available in almost every shop. Thorne's, Viedt's, Louise Maas, the Del — all display it fondly and hope it won't shatter before you get it home. Almost translucent, it is.

England's Elizabeth Shaw sends Gourmet chocolate mint

But Pluck Him First

Allen's Flower Shop in Hopewell has a brace of pheasants, fresh from the uplands, ready for you to present to somebody you want to impress. (Allen's says "a gift for an executive.") These birds are cleaned but still feathered and they come boxed with bits of bayberry and acorns — $15.50 a pair. We suggest plucking before roasting.

The flower shop, which also sells flowers, by the way, has gifts still feathered which they will deliver, gift-wrapped, to anybody you name. No feathers on these.

Crisps, with bits of crystallized mint scattered throughout. Here are canisters of Nations' six countries presenting their most noted porcelains in reproduction, Wedgwood, Sevres, Dresden, Delft, Majolica, Kang-Hsi. Toffee is inside each one.

At Allen's Flower Shop in Hopewell, Petits Miniatures are ready for the ablest at $1.50 and $1.85. Davidson's of-ture bars at eight for 75 cents. (Look at Davidson's long, hollow cane filled with wrapped candies and topped with a styrofoam handle.)

The ready of the house at Nassau Pharmacy is Whitman, with Schmitt's chocolate and hard-candies) and Candy Cupboard in the same line-up.

Viedt's brings in crystallized ginger, wafer-thin mints, chocolate apples from Holland, hand-rolled candy canes and maple-sugar Santa. Lots of marzipan, too.

The Del's marzipan offering for Christmas dinner is a pig about four inches long. He's olive, though, with a red nose, his mouth. Not really alive, you know, just marzipan alive.

And while you're blocking out that Christmas dinner, think of ice-cream snowballs, rolled in coconut, for dessert. Each ball has a red candle and little holly leaves. Louise Maas and Viedt's.

We're back with Tobler again when we visit Louise Maas and the Nassau Del. This enterprising Swiss house seems to cover the town. Lindt hasn't given up, however, and is in full supply at the Nassau Del, wrapped suavely in a gold or red candy box. Try the Bonbon Taster with assorted filled chocolates.

For a traveler, you might give Tobler's two-foot wheel of chocolates with a cover of travel posters and ticket stubs. What else at the Del? Rum and butter toffee, Swiss candy pebbles, cocoa almonds, flower lollipops, candied papaya.

SOLIDS

Ready to Eat? The Food Mart will cook your goose. As so your turkey, roast beef or chicken. For broiling frankfurters, you're on your own. They will also make for you some salads for New Year's Eve supper and will provide you with cold cuts from every country in the world except the Congo.

Center Pastry and Fish Market in the Princeton Shopping Center, has cepons, geese, turkeys and chickens, all absolutely fresh; no frozen ones here at all. Any of these can be barbecued, if that is your holiday preference.

cashier of the First National Bank of Princeton, has been designated an moderator and discussion leader for the group sessions. The series is designed to develop business leadership through economic discussion. Enrollment in this first discussion group is limited to 25 persons. Another group will be formed to meet another evening if the program is oversubscribed.

SCHOOLS STAYING OPEN

One Extra Day. Princeton Borough schools will stay open until Thursday at 12:30 instead of Wednesday, as originally scheduled. The extra day was needed to keep the Borough school schedule in conformity with state requirements. The state requires that the schools be open 180 days during the year, and the Borough schools, "officially" scheduled to be open 182 days, lost three days last week. The schools were closed

Davis Is Honored

B. Woodhull Davis, former Borough superintendent of schools, was honored at Tuesday's meeting of the Board of Education with the presentation of a scroll expressing the board's appreciation for his work. Text of the scroll was written by Irving W. Merishon, board secretary.

Mr. Davis, who was associated with Princeton from 1928 to 1960, has been working on an award marked his last official victory last week. Full attendance at a board meeting.

In accepting the scroll, Mr. Davis said, "These honors should be shared with many fine people and with a very fine community."

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Superintendent Stroup said, because of the bad conditions of roads in sending districts and because parking lots and paths could not be cleared before Wednesday.

He praised the work of the custodial staff and the Borough Engineer's office in making it possible for the schools to open last Thursday. Schools in Trenton and in Hamilton and Irving Townships remained closed all week, he said.

Telephones A Success. Mr. Stroup also reported that the communication system worked very well. Under this system, a pre-recorded message informed telephone callers whether or not schools would be open.

"The only problem, Mr. Stroup said, was that some children called several times, crowding the system. 'We'd need 20 answering devices to handle such volume,' he said."

Fence Removal Set. A request from Bryce Thompson for permission to remove temporarily a fence between his property at 154 Nassau Street and the property at the Nassau Street School was approved pending execution of a lease contract. The question of whether or not the fence will be removed permanently will be considered at the January board meeting.

Mr. Thompson is removing the fence in order to erect an office building adjoining his present building. The new structure, Mr. Thompson said, will be a narrow five-story building, two stories high, and faced with brick. The electric Institute are still waiting to be filled by Princeton residents. Robert Eisenmann has over 20 letters, which ask for modest Christmas presents of all kinds.

With the holiday just a few days away, prospective donors are asked to call Mr. Eisenmann directly at Nassau 011, and then leave their gifts at the Home Furnishing Shop. The project is sponsored by the Princeton Jaycees.

Sen. Smith Donates Papers to Princeton
The papers of Senator H. Alexander Smith, including material relating to his 12 years on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, have been presented to the Princeton University Library. Elected to the Senate from New Jersey in 1914, to fill a vacancy resulting from the death of Senator Warren E. Hearnes, Senator Smith was re-elected in 1916 and 1922. He was an active member of the New Jersey Republican State Committee, of which he became chairman, and also of the National Republican Committee. He and his wife, the former Helen Domben, were married in 1917. He died in 1931 at Princeton, N.J.

FOR BETTER, HIGHER EDUCATION. Representatives of Princeton schools and the Princeton League of Women Voters examine copies of the League's study on higher education in New Jersey. UNIVERSITY CLEANERS & LAUNDRY

Town Topics regrets that a combination of heavy volume of other news and a curtailed issue last week because of the snowstorm has delayed publication of the following letters.

Police Action Condemned.
To the Editor of Town Topics: I wish to register a loud protest over the action of the Borough Police during the recent snow storm. After being completely snow-bound last Monday, I cautiously crawled the treacherous roads to the Princeton station Tuesday morning.

University Place was choked with drifts and stalled cars. No trains were on schedule.

As I approached the intersection above McCarter Theatre, cars were stalled and skidding the remaining stretch to the railroad. I pulled out the road into a snow drift and walked to the train.

Of course the hour-drive back from New York that night took two hours. No complaint. But when I walked up the street in my car, with a few stranded commuters to whom I had offered a ride, there remained only an empty drift. I called the police station and was greeted with a brusque reply that they didn't know where my car had been taken.

There were no taxis available. I called my wife who began digging out of newly formed drifts to come and rescue me. Half an hour later on coming my home I found the drifts were nearly insurmountable.

So I called the police again and after pleading desperation they located my car at a local garage. I paid the $8 towing charge, but I really protest loudly over the Borough fine of $5 under the circumstances. I am not a resident of Princeton Borough but certainly police could not have known that when they towed my car away, refused to disclose its whereabouts and placed a fine on it. If I were a resident, I would think more than ever that there is little excuse for this attitude from an organization instituted to be a community asset.

From a regular commuter

Bathbuts and Box-bail.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

When I first arrived in Princeton six years ago and started reading TOWN TOPICS, I decided you were right not to classify your "classified" ad section. After all, who knows when I might accidentally buy a $50,000 house while looking through for a used bathtub?

Six years and 624 hours of reading now later, I am forced to a conclusion: If I had spent those two hours a week it takes me to read the wanted section working at say $15.00 an hour — a modest enough wage for a good writer — I would have by now have earned $336, or enough to buy about six new bathtubs. I have therefore decided that it is no longer worthwhile reading your ads. I will start reading them again when you classify readers' bathtubs by how much they will end up with the bathtub and not the house.

EILEEN SEILER
(Mrs. Frederick E. Seiler)
378 Jefferson Road

Editor's Note: TOWN TOPICS agrees with Mrs. Seiler that its unclassified policy is, at best, unorderly. However, having watched the volume of such advertising multiply year after year, it is proceeding on the baseball adage that "you never change a winning lineup." Meanwhile, readers who accidentally find themselves trying to move into $50,000 bathtubs will have the full purchase price refunded.

Thanks from United Fund.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

At this season of the year, it is most appropriate that we pause and reflect on the outstanding job that the community has done in its effort for the Princeton United Community Fund and the agencies which it represents. While we still cannot report 100 percent of our goal, we will reach it when every final effort has been completed.

The Princeton United Community Fund officers and directors wish to thank the hundreds of workers in their devoted efforts in solicitation. To the thousands of contributors, we offer our gratitude for the beautiful giving which has produced this excellent result.

Let there be no thought in anyone's mind that Princeton cannot or does not recognize and accept its responsibility in providing for its needs in health, welfare and recreation service.

Fred M. Blalcher
President,
United Community Fund

By-Pass Backed.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

The 206 by-pass, a recurrent local topic for many years, has recently received considerable attention from the Planning Boards of both Borough and Township, the Borough Council and the Township Committee. The Princeton League of Women Voters is heartened by the fact that these bodies are beginning to take action on this most urgent road relief and has written to them, stating in part:

"As a result of its study of community planning and the Township Master Plan, our membership considers the 206 by-pass as worthy of the highest priority in new road construction. If the essential characteristics of Princeton are to be preserved the removal of heavy through traffic obviously is imperative."

"Delay will not only mean increased traffic congestion, but will also multiply the difficulties of obtaining the land (as surveys continue to be developed) and will, in addition, augment the expense of building the road."

"For these reasons we urge you to expend every effort to secure as soon as possible a decision from the State Highway Department as to the actual location of 206-A and to press for an immediate allocation in the state budget for its construction."

Money Well Spent.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

A letter from a local firm of interior decoration consultants (Sturhan, Dickenson and Bernard) informs me that they have "adopted" two destitute five-year-olds through the Save the Children Federation. One is a Korean girl, the other a Chinese girl. The firm is supporting the children with the money that usually goes to swell the flood of Christmas gifts away by companies at Christmas time.

This seems to me a worthy channel into which to divert the conspicuous spending that companies, in common with other Americans, feel compelled to indulge in at this time.

DAVID HAFSGOOD

Translation Requested.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Mr. D. Reed Stunt's rebuttal to my letter (Mailbox Nov. 13-19) seems rather long and vapid, particularly in view of his reference of "his and hisle 'q'" in democratic ideals. It is suggested that he translate this flowery comment into simple language for the sake of some readers who may fall within either group.

Obviously, Mr. Stunt was more obsessed with projecting personal ideas, than applying strict attention to the basic substance of my letter, thus neglecting to answer fact with fact.

Opposes Some Plan Changes.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

This is an area of explosive growth. Growth brings inevitable change. Princeton cannot hope to be exactly as it is today 10 or 20 years hence. But most of us who live here and love it do hope that Princeton will remain as much like it is today as possible.

That is one reason that a master plan is essential; that is one reason that I, like many of my fellow townsmen, am glad the revised master plan has finally been submitted for study. I hope that study will be broadly based and will be thoughtful and deliberate, for what we decide now will surely shape our future.

Obviously, I have not had time to study the plan, but summations of it, I hasten to go on record in say that I am horrified by certain of the proposals dealing with traffic circulation. I hope that many other citizens will be equally horrified and that an aroused public opinion will prevent some of the changes proposed by the plan from being adopted.

As those who followed the recent political campaign will recall, I am strongly for the construction of the 206-A by-pass connecting Route No. 1 with Route No. 206 by a road east of the Township. That must be our first priority because that, and that only, will — Continued on Page 29

"MERRY CHRISTMAS" BAH HUMBUG

That was what Scrooge said when he was greeted with "Merry Christmas" on the day of Christ's nativity and there are times when some of us are inclined to agree with him. After all, the scramble for gifts, the commercial use of carols, and the overloaded Christmas tables have little to do with the birth of Christ. They represent the commercialization of Christmas; the use of this holy day for personal profit and gain.

Christmas means the birth of a Saviour. The Good News of One who came to take away sin that we might know God and live in fellowship with Him. That is why the heart of Christmas is the experience of forgiveness—an experience which will cause you to celebrate this sacred occasion with praise and thanksgiving to God.

You can make Christmas meaningful by beginning now to attend the church of your choice. If you are not definitely aligned with a Christian fellowship we invite you to meet with us as we seek to worship the Christ Child!

Question of the Week

Question: What do you want for Christmas?
Where asked: Mrs. F. Wells Shoemaker's first grade class at Valley Road School.

Todd Marshall, 108 Dempsey Avenue: A big, fat, long rope to swing on, the kind you hang in a tree. I think I also want a Mr. Machine and a Venus Paradise Color set.

Trudy Anderson, 113 Dempsey Avenue: I want a Patty Play Bell for Christmas. And I want a Mr. Machine. And I want—there's a book and it has...let's see...it has a picture of a cigarette machine and that's what I want, the machine not the book. Let's see, I want—what is it—a house on TV—the door opens, the doorknob rings, the curtains open and shut, and the lights light. And I want the house with the furniture. And, let's see, I want a paper doll, a piano (the one that has a stool) a record player with some jazz records. And I want some school books and a desk to play school. And I want some line paper and, let's see, I want some puppets and a puppet stage and I guess that's all. Oh, no, I want some paints and some paste. That's all.

Allyn Dimock, 429 Walnut Lane: A game of jacks, a bike, a game of Winnie the Pooh and I'd like to have a toy space ship. I guess that's enough, I think.

Allyn Conte, 6 Guyot Ave: I want a doll house and a doll about my size. I think I'm 46 inches. And a Mr. Machine. That's all I want.

Richard McGrath, 89 Dempsey Avenue: I already gave Santa the list so I don't have to tell you what I want. I'm pretty sure he'll bring what I want.

Karen McCord, 205 Moore Street: A juke. I don't want anything else because we're moving over to Grandmother's and they'll be lots of things there to play with.

Oscar Bailey, 17 Birch Avenue: A bicycle and a soda fountain pump so I can make my own ice cream sodas. And a Remco modern racing car. Nothing else.

Maria Mack, 198 Birch Avenue: A talking doll, ice skates, an ice cream machine, a talking doll and a pair of roller skates. I don't know if I want anything else.

Jonathan Saunders, 447 Walnut Lane: A wagon, a train, a toy car that zooms, plain white paper because I like to write. Let's see, now, chalk. Guess that's all.

Charlotte Glinka, 293 Walnut Lane: A hockey game, a Shirley Temple doll, a necklace and bracelet and two more dolls. I guess that's all.

Stefan Slaby, 469 Ewing Street: Mr. Machine and the new battleship they sell on TV—Fighting Lady! A couple of different kinds of waxes because I got some skis from Norway. A hammer and a few tools like a screwdriver and some nails. I like to build because my father is an engineer; he's a teacher. I think that's all.

Nancy Quick, 129 Jefferson Road: I wrote down on a list what I want but I forgot what I wrote.
George Boccanfusa, 150 Linden Lane: I want the Fighting Lady; the bandit when you hit him he shoots back at you; an adding game, "Sorry," "Concentration." Nothing else.

Ricky Cobb, 355 Walnut Lane: A stage. I have some puppets and I need a stage for them. A house and a table and one chair. And one game. That's all.

Davis Carver, 385 Walnut Lane: A rocket and Raggedy Ann. Some blocks and Raggedy Andy, too. I want both Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy. Nothing else.

Peter Lynch, 196 Jefferson Road: Rifle Ranch, a cigarette stand and an airplane. Nothing else.

Lowell Johnson, 510 Ewing Street: Well, an Erector Set, a game of Cootie, I think also I guess...hmm...a Rifle game and that's just about all. I wish I could think of a bit more to tell you but I forgot lots of it.

SPORTS In Princeton

TIGER SIX SURPRISES

With Pile of Victories, a highly successful New England trip provided a pair of victories for Princeton's young hockey team, with the 5-0 over Northeastern ranking as a distinct upset. The Massachusetts college, small but ranks with the better teams in the hockey-happy Boston area. It had posted victories over Boston University, Brown and Yale before taking on the Tigers.

The weekend junket began with a 5-2 overtime victory over Brown at Providence in which Princeton some how managed to survive the effects of 15 penalties. This continuing tendency to play a large portion of each game a man short seems sure to hurt the undermanned Tigers in most cases, but this time they over-estimated a "winless Brown season." The loss was the Bruins' sixth in a row.

Perry Hall got the Orange and Black off to a good start with a goal at 10:23 in the first period, but Brown took a 2-1 lead with 11 minutes left. In the third round, Johnny Cook's goal at 16:53 then sent the game into overtime, with Dave Hersey having in a rebound at 4:37 to win for Princeton. Cook also assisted on Hall's tally and continued to play standout hockey.

On Harvard's Watson Rink at Cambridge Saturday, Coach Norm Wood's operatives staged a see-saw contest with Northeastern and emerged the winners. The Tigers twice came from behind and actually had a 5-3 lead before yielding the losers' final goal in what was clearly their best game of the young season.

The high scoring first line of Hall, Hyland and Cook paced the Princeton attack, each player scoring once. Paul Burnett and Hunch Scott were credited with the victors' other goals, and Candian Larry Van Geisue was frequently spectacular in the nets.

The Tigers will take to the road again shortly after Christmas, playing three games in as many days in the Rensselaer Polytechnic Tournament at Troy, N.Y. Harvard's fine team will be among the enemies.

DEFENSE CRUMBLES

As Quietest Edges Rutgers, Princeton's basketball team fails to protect big leads against Rutgers last week, the bright prospects anticipated for the Orange and Black will become considerably tarnished.

From a presumably comfortable 57-35 margin in the second half, the Tigers gradually declined into an 85-51 tie and then had to get a basket with two seconds left to force an overtime battle. In the extra round, they frittered away six-point lead before reserve center Tom Adams tapped in a follow shot to make it a 91-92 final.

Deerfield Wins

Erasing a 1-0 deficit, Deerfield Academy defeated the Nichols School of Buffalo Saturday afternoon to win the 13th annual Lawrenceville Hockey Tournament. Vee McMorris of 90 Bayard Lane started at defense for the victors, who triumphed over St. Mark's on their way to the finals. Chontse, whose squad included Dave McHenry, Nick Hare and Robbie Carrick of Princeton, edged Telft, 3-2, to win the consolation final. The host team, Lawrenceville, lost its first two games to Nichols, 6-1, and Telft, 4-1, but blanked its traditional rival, the Hill School, 6-0, Saturday morning.

Al Kaemmerlen played another fine game for Princeton, leading in rebounds and accounting for 22 points but he fouled out with six minutes to go. Neither Larry Brennan nor Adams was effective as his replacement, and Rutgers' clutch closed the gap.

The Scarlet took an 88-84 lead with 14 seconds left, but Captain Don Swan drove in for a lay-up just before time ran out to prevent the Tigers from absorbing an ignominious defeat. They moved out quickly in the overtime round with six straight points, only to fall back to another Adams' up then followed, the victory raising the team's record to 4-1.

Sophomore Art Hyland was high man in the contest, his 29 points including a fire 11 for 18 effort from the floor. Pete Campbell contributed 21, making eight of 13 field goal attempts.

HUN FIVE WINS OFFER

Idle Till January 7. In its opening game against Bryn Athyn Saturday in the season's ninth gymnasium, the Hun School basketball team presented its new coach, Dan Baran, with a 52-22 victory. The Red and Black will not play again until January 7 when it meets Delbarton in a non-league game on its home court.

Originally, Hun was scheduled to open the 1950-51 season against Flngtry. The game was postponed twice because of the weather, however, and will not be played until sometime after the holidays.

Bryn Athyn threw a scare at Hun when it jumped to a 16-13 first-quarter lead. At the start of the second quarter, Hun switched from a man-to-man to a 3-2 zone defense. The maneuver was so successful that the visitors were only able to score 16 points in the remaining three periods. "We plugged up the lane so effectively," Coach Baran reported, "that they were forced to do all their shooting from the outside."

Much credit for the win belongs to Jay Maynell and Jim Byer who grabbed off 23 rebounds between them. This was four more than the entire Bryn Athyn team whose starting five man for was, rather than Hun's.

Top scorer for Hun and the only one to hit double figures was Princeton's Tommy Peterson with 17. Tommy hit on five of 12 shots and sank seven out of 10 foul tries. Gary Groves and C.A. Hale each had six points.

The game was a Penn-Jersey League contest. Next League opponent for Hun will be Germantown on January 11.

BASKETBALL PLANNED
During Vacation. The Board of Education of Princeton Borough and the YMCA have combined resources to provide all high school boys in the community an opportunity to play basketball during the holiday vacation week.

School Superintendent Chester R. Stroup has announced that the Princeton High School gymnasium will be open for informal play from 1 to 3 next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The Y will provide supervision and equipment but no proper gym shoes will be required. All high school boys in the area are invited to participate.

MRS. WOODBRIDGE WINS

In Skating Contest, Mrs. Dudley E. Woodbridge of Carter Road, representing Princeton Skating Club, Inc., was winner of the dance event at the South Atlantic Figure Skating Championships, held recently at the Valley Forge Country and Skating Club, Audubon, Penna.

By winning this event Mrs. Woodbridge became eligible to compete in the Eastern Championships which will be held at the South Mountain Arena, West Orange. Winners of the Eastern Championships will enter the National Championships.

SEXTON NAMED PRO

At Pine Brook Links, Rudy Sexton, a New Jersey professional for over 25 years, has been named pro-greenkeeper for the new Pine Brook Country Club in Belle Mead. His appointment was announced by Joseph E. Westervelt, club president.

A resident of Lebanon, Sexton is a class A member of the Professional Golf Association and has supervised work at the Pine Brook links since June.

Report from THE MAYOR

Merry Christmas! Once again it is Christmas in Princeton. The heavy snows that have been such a burden to everyone have nonetheless provided a scenic touch for a real "old fashioned" Christmas.

The subfreezing temperatures day after day have not had the power to diminish the warmth of hearts and smiles and handshakes in a town that has so many reasons to understand and to appreciate the real meaning of Christmas. To one and all the Mayor extends best wishes.

A special greeting, too, should be sent on behalf of the community to all the members of the Borough staff who have served faithfully and well. Greetings also to the many volunteers who serve on boards and committees as part of the official family.

And a very special greeting to those for whom the White Christmas has meant so much extra effort—several of the mail messengers more than 70 hours of grueling work during this past week.

Trees and Budgets: Last week's meeting of Mayor and Council was the last regular meeting of two retiring members of the Borough governing body: Mr. Trees and Mr. Budget.

Councilman Dick Colman has been a strong contributor to Borough government in many, many ways during his six years on Council. But all of us agree that we will remember him best for his constant, unflinching reminders of the importance of Princeton's trees.

It took only a quick question from the Mayor to elicit a spirited discourse from Councilman Colman. We hope to hear him busy, officially unofficially even after his "retirement" from Borough Hall.

Mr. Budget is, of course, retiring Councilman Dick Lester, an acknowledged master in the art of pruning budgets, watching municipal expenditures with a calculating eye, and supervising the handling of Borough cash and investments to get maximum mileage out of each tax dollar.

Councilman Lester will be missed—especially at budget time—and appreciated most especially by the Councilman who is persuaded to take on the portfolio of Finance Chairman, and by the Mayor who has come to rely on his wisdom and judgment in so many areas of Borough business.

Friday Open House: The regular weekly "Tell it to the Mayor!" sessions will be held on Friday, December 23, and Friday, December 30, from 7 to 10 p.m. at Borough Hall. No appointment is ever necessary for these informal meetings.

Mayor and Council will also meet next week for a final 1960 session aimed primarily at routine business items; transfers between accounts; authorization for payment of bills, and so forth. Council has voted to hold the organizational meeting for the new year on Monday, January 2, at 12 noon.

It is hoped that the public will attend this formal session and the customary reception thereafter to welcome our two new Councilmen and salute our two retiring members. A new enterprise will also become official on January 2nd with the appointment of the members of the board of the new joint public library, approved by referendum in the Borough and Township in November.

In The Cash Register: Mounds of snow will doubtless reduce parking meter collections in December, but at the end of November the total had reached $65,623.47, an increase of $4,382.81 over the same period last year.

Other items of interest in the Treasurer's report: 1961 prepaid taxes totaling $11,550.29 with only $7.64 uncollected from 1965 taxes; receipts in 1965 from accounts which have exceeded the 1960 budget anticipation, reflecting in several cases the increases in fees voted by Council during the year.

The second priority, which is second only because of tactical considerations in our relationship with the State, is to construct the "internal loop" which will serve local residents who while remaining in the general area, have no desire nor need to be transported to be embroiled in the center of the town. That loop should consist of Harrison Street, Hamilton Street, and the proposed Wiggins-Avalon (including the link proposed between Bayard and Alexander), and the road which the University has offered to help construct south of Lake Carnegie connecting Bayard and Alexander and lower Harrison.

We do not need, in my estimation, a lot of additional "straightening" of roads, and construction of other links within the heart of the Borough. I cannot even begin to know when I say that I am very strongly opposed to what appears to be proposed in the form of almost wholesale straightening and widening and widening of streets in order to achieve a certain "neatness" called "map neatness."

Our historic eastern towns are a lot more interesting on the ground with a rectangular grid of streets and property lines than the "neatness" of the compass. A good portion of the charm and character of our towns, of which Princeton is no momentary exception, lies in the fact that they do have streets of varying widths; lower streets do not meet exactly at right angles, streets which are sometimes dead end, and sometimes end in loops.

I recognize that the automobile is here to stay, but I refuse to concede that we must map our physical surroundings entirely for those drivers who feel they must get from one side of the Borough to the other in two or three minutes less time than it now takes. We have not yet entirely lost the use of our legs, some adults enjoy walking.

Of course children still do often walk, and the students at all our institutions do a great deal of walking. Indeed, one of the charms, often unrecognized, of this town is that it has the aspect of a largely pedestrian population. Let's not change that since we do not have to.

The other feature of the proposed revision in the master plan about which I believe the people of Princeton should be immediately aroused even without study is the proposal to cut Marquand Park by creating a link between Elm Road and Springdale Road. If the Alexander-Bayard part of the loop is completed, I see very little excuse for an additional internal through north-south street. I see no excuse for dividing one of the superb natural features of the town in such a way that its beauty and its usefulness would be largely destroyed.

Prostrate Police Action.
To the Editor of Town Topics: During the snow-storm when we knew all the facilities were being taxed to their utmost, we dug out our drive-way, put chains on our car, helped other commuters get to the station and did it all in our power to relieve congestion and not bother anyone who had to do with speeding the snow-removal process.

Last Friday, I went to New York; it was snowing hard at 9:15 a.m. and the traffic at the station was heavy; there was not a policeman in sight. I parked in the center of University Place opposite the station in a space left between a group of nine other cars.

When I came back at 4 p.m., my car was gone. Without any warning it had been towed away. After tracing to Borough Hall, I was told to go to the other end of Nassau Street to a garage that charged me $10 for towing. A ticket was on the car. The notation: "OBSTRUCTING TRAFFIC."

At Borough Hall, I had been told that the car had been towed away in order to plow University Place. However, the snow the car was parked on is still there today!

I still have my fine to pay. It will have been an expensive snowstorm despite doing all our own work, but most disappointing of all is the callousness of the authorities.

At the city's clinic, Princeton Hospital's monthly polio clinic will be held this Tuesday from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Outpatient Department. First, second, third and booster shots are available for $1 each.

Since attendance at the winter clinic is usually small, the authorities suggest Princeton residents take advantage of the shorter waiting time and catch up on shots for the whole family.

Force of habit can bring strange results. Through habit we often accept less than the best rather than try something new. Perhaps by habit you continue to buy the same GINGER ALE and CLUB SODA that you've used for years. You'd be surprised and delighted if you'd try KERN'S PALE DRY GINGER ALE and KERN'S SPARKLING CLUB SODA. You'll find that Kerna has in these two mixers beverages of superlative quality. KERN'S CLUB SODA and KERN'S GINGER ALE will hold their sparkling carbonation long after other mixers have gone flat. Try these two KERN'S products. You'll like the clean taste of KERN'S GINGER ALE; you'll like the zingy spring character of KERN'S SPARKLING WATER. Ask your dealer for KERN'S by the case or by the bottle. You'll like the saving in price, too. Call WA 4-0836. 12-22-71
